

I have listened to the experimental transmissions and found them to be interesting, entertaining, and professionally presented. The transmissions also allow for propagation testing and alignment of RTTY decoding equipment. I support the establishment of this service permanently as a legitimate form of broadcasting.